Welcome Message

We would like to invite you to participate in Current Perspectives in Liver Diseases (CPLD 2023) ; a single theme conference on “Complications of Cirrhosis” on 21st and 22nd of October 2023 at All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi, India

CPLD is held annually and is jointly organized by All India Institute of Medical Sciences, New Delhi, Post Graduate Institute of Medical Education and Research, Chandigarh and Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences, Lucknow, the premier medical institutes in India. Over the last 20 years, CPLD has focused on numerous themes, including autoimmune hepatitis and overlap syndromes, interventions in hepatology, hepatic encephalopathy, ascites, critical care in liver diseases etc. We have received overwhelmingly positive response from gastroenterologists, hepatologists and physicians from all over the nation.

This year's conference, focusing on “Complications of cirrhosis” will again be attended by renowned hepatologists, gastroenterologists, surgeons, radiologists and pathologists of national and international fame who will share their understanding of basics as well as recent advancements in the field. The two-day conference will include lectures, debates and panel discussions encompassing all aspects of cirrhosis and approach to their management. It will undoubtedly be a great learning experience for everyone involved.

Looking forward to seeing you in Delhi !
