- 8.1 Goods shall be delivered by the supplier on "Free Delivery at Site" basis and delivered as per Delivery Period specified in the Purchase Order placed against Ltd Tender. Please note that the time shall be the essence of the contract.
- 8.2 The goods are to be supplied by F.O.R. destination and all the transit loss / expenses whatsoever, will be borne by the supplier/firm.

9. Payment Terms

- 9.1 100% payment would be made on receipt of goods in good condition and acceptance, upon the submission of the following documents:
  - i) Original copies of supplier's invoice showing Purchase Orders number, goods description, quantity, packing list, unit price and total amount;
  - ii) "Consignee Receipt Certificate" as per Section XIV of limited tender document in original
  - iii) "Final Consignee Acceptance Certificate" as per Section XV of goods to be issued by the End User subject to recoveries, if any, either on account of non-rectification of defects/deficiencies not attended by the Supplier or otherwise.
- 9.2 Any dues or payments that have arisen to the Institution from the supplier for which no specific time-limit has been laid down in the terms & conditions, shall be payable by the supplier within such time limit as may be prescribed in the various letters/orders addressed to the contractors. On failure to do so the supplier shall be liable to be debarred for not paying dues or payment etc. to the hospital for a period as decided by the Director or his nominee.
- 9.3 Conditions of advance payments or payment against delivery shall not be accepted.

10. Delivery

- 10.1 The supplier shall deliver the goods within the time schedule specified by the Purchaser Order as per in the Schedule of Requirements and as incorporated in the limited tender. The time for and the date of delivery of the goods stipulated in the Purchase Order shall be deemed to be of the essence of the contract and the delivery must be completed no later than the date (s) as specified in the Purchase Order.
- 10.2 Supply orders placed against the contract, on or just before last date of the tenure of contract will have to be accepted /honored by the supplier.
- 10.3 Subject to the provision under Force Majeure clause of GCC, any unexcused delay by the supplier in maintaining its contractual obligations towards delivery of goods shall render the supplier liable to any or all of the following sanctions:
- i) Imposition of liquidated damages,
  - ii) Forfeiture of its Performance Security and
  - iii) Termination of the supply order/Purchase Orders for default.
- 10.4 If at any time the supplier encounters conditions hindering timely delivery of the goods, the supplier shall promptly inform the Purchaser in writing but not later than 10 days from the date of issue of the Purchase Order about the same and its likely duration and make a request to the Purchaser for extension of the delivery schedule accordingly. In case no communication is received within 10 days from the date of issue of Purchase Order, it will be presumed that supplier has accepted the Purchase Order in all regards. On receiving the supplier's communication, the Purchaser shall examine the situation as soon as possible and, at its discretion, may agree to extend the delivery schedule, with or without liquidated damages for completion of supplier's contractual obligations by issuing an amendment to the Purchase Order.
- 10.5 When the period of delivery is extended due to unexcused delay by the supplier, the amendment letter extending the delivery period shall, inter alia contain the following conditions:
- i) The Purchaser shall recover from the supplier, under the provisions of the Force Majeure clause of the General Conditions of Contract, Liquidated Damages on the goods, which the Supplier has failed to deliver within the delivery period stipulated in the Purchase Order.
  - ii) That no increase in price on account of any ground, whatsoever, including any stipulation after finalization of the Ltd. tender for increase in price on any other ground and, also including statutory increase in or fresh imposition of GST levied in respect of the goods specified in the Purchase Order, which takes place after the date of delivery stipulated in the Purchase Order shall be admissible on such of the said goods as are delivered and performed after the date of the delivery stipulated in the Purchase Order.
  - iii) But nevertheless, the Purchaser shall be entitled to the benefit of any decrease in price on account of reduction in GST which takes place after the expiry of the date of delivery stipulated in the Purchase Order.
- 10.6 The supplier shall not dispatch the goods after expiry of the delivery period. The supplier is required to apply to the Purchaser for extension of delivery period and obtain the same before dispatch. In case the supplier dispatches the goods without obtaining an extension, it would be doing so at its own risk and no claim for payment for such supply and / or any other expense related to such supply shall lie against the purchaser.

10.7 Passing of Property

- (i) The property in the goods shall not pass to the purchaser unless and until the goods have been delivered to the consignee in accordance with the contract.
- (ii) Where there is a contract for sale of specific goods and the supplier is bound to do something to the goods for the purpose of putting them into a deliverable state the property does not pass until such thing is done.
- (iii) Unless otherwise agreed, the goods remain at the supplier's risk until the property therein is transferred to the purchaser.

10.8 The delivery period should not exceed 45 (forty five) days for all supplies but in emergency the delivery period may be reduced up to 15 days and firm is bound to supply the items within DOD (Date of delivery) period. 13.9 Packing should be able to prevent damage or deterioration during transit.

13.10 All containers i.e. bottles, cartons, tubes etc. are required to be secure with pilferage-proof seals to ensure genuineness of the products packed and the correctness of the contents.

13.11 The supply offered should comply with the provisions of the Drugs and Cosmetics Act, 1940 and the Rules made there under as amended up to date and Drug Price Control order.

14. Liquidated Damages

- 14.1 Subject to Force Majeure clause of the General Conditions of Contract, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods within the time frame(s) incorporated in the Purchase Order, the Purchaser shall, without prejudice to other rights and remedies available to the Purchaser deduct from the Purchase Order, as liquidated damages as mentioned below:
- A) First extension up to 15 days or part thereof _____ @2% of the ordered value.
  - B) Second extension >15 < 30 days _____ @ 3% of the ordered value.
  - C) In case of delay beyond > 30 days _____ @7.5% of the ordered value.
- 14.2 In case of default institute will have the right to procure the ordered item from open market /another party at their own risk and expenses under risk purchase clause.
- 14.3 The approved vendor should supply all their ordered items within DOD period as per supply order terms and these terms should be strictly adhered to. In case they fail to supply the item within DOD period, the reminder letter would not be issued in any circumstances and penalty will be imposed. The item would be arranged either through local purchase or from open market under Risk Purchase Clause without any information in this regard. The difference amount shall be recovered from the pending dues of the firm. In the eventuality of such instances being repeated, administrative action shall be initiated as per AIIMS procedure which may lead to debarring of the firm for subsequent tenders (upto 3 years).

- 14.4 It is hereby also informed that in case any administrative action (imposing of liquidated damages, warning letter, risk purchase, short supply etc.) is taken by the AIIMS during the ltd. tender period against any approved vendor, it would be reflected during finalization of the next Ltd. tender as "Past performance" of that firm.
- 14.5 The Director or his nominee reserves the right to invite at his sole discretion, separate quotations to effect purchase outside this contract in the event of any urgent demand arising in hospital, where no stock is held or otherwise.

15. Termination for Default

- 15.1 The Purchaser without prejudice to any other contractual rights and remedies available to it the Purchaser, may, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the ltd. tender /Purchase Order in whole or in part, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or fails to perform any other contractual obligation(s) within the time period specified in the Purchase Order, or within any extension thereof granted by the Purchaser.
- 15.2 The Performance Security in such cases will be forfeited equivalent to the amount of Purchase Order.
- 15.3 Unless otherwise instructed by the Purchaser, the supplier shall continue to perform the Purchase Orders to the extent not terminated.

16. Termination for Insolvency

- 16.1 If the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, the purchaser reserves the right to terminate the Purchase Orders at any time, by serving written notice to the supplier without any compensation, whatsoever, to the supplier, subject to further condition that such termination will not prejudice or affect the rights and remedies which have accrued and / or will accrue thereafter to the Purchaser.

17. Force Majeure

- 17.1 Notwithstanding the provisions contained in above clauses of GCC, the supplier shall not be liable for imposition of any such sanction so long the delay and/or failure of the supplier in fulfilling its obligations under the Purchase Orders is the result of an event of Force Majeure.
- 17.2 For purposes of this clause, Force Majeure means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and which is not foreseeable and not brought about at the instance of the party claiming to be affected by such event and which has caused the non – performance or delay in performance. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, wars or revolutions, hostility, acts of public enemy, civil commotion, sabotage, fires, floods, explosions, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes excluding by its employees, lockouts excluding by its management and freight embargoes.
- 17.3 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the Purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof within twenty one days of occurrence of such event. Unless otherwise directed by the Purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the Purchase Orders as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

- 17.4 If the performance in whole or in part or any obligation under this Purchase Orders is prevented or delayed by any reason of Force Majeure for a period exceeding sixty days, either party may at its option terminate the Purchase Orders without any financial repercussion on either side.
- 17.5 In case due to a Force Majeure event the Purchaser is unable to fulfill its contractual commitment and responsibility, the Purchaser will notify the supplier accordingly and subsequent actions taken on similar lines described in above sub-paragraphs.

18. Termination for Convenience

- 18.1 The Purchaser reserves the right to terminate the purchase order in whole or in part for its Purchaser's convenience, by serving written notice on the supplier of 30 days at any time during the currency of the Rate approved.

19. Resolution of Disputes

- 19.1 If dispute or difference of any kind shall arise between the Purchaser/Consignee and the supplier in connection with or relating to the Purchase Orders, the parties shall make every effort to resolve the same amicably by mutual consultations.
- 19.2 If the parties fail to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation within twenty-one days of its occurrence, then, unless otherwise provided in the SCC, either the Purchaser/Consignee or the supplier may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided the applicable arbitration procedure will be as per the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 of India.
- 19.3 In the case of a dispute or difference arising between the Purchaser and a domestic Supplier relating to any matter arising out of or connected with the Purchase Orders, such dispute or difference shall be referred to the sole arbitrator to be appointed by the Director, AIIMS. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties to the Purchase Orders subject to the provision that the Arbitrator shall give reasoned award in case the value of claim in reference exceeds Rupees One lakhs (Rs. 1,00,000/-)
- 19.4 Venue of Arbitration: The venue of arbitration shall be the place from where the Purchase Orders has been issued, i.e., New Delhi, India.
- 19.5 Jurisdiction of the court will be from the place where the limited tender document has been issued, i.e., New Delhi, India.
- 19.6 Applicable Law: The purchase orders shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of India for the time being in force.

20. Withholding and Lien in respect of sums claimed

- 20.1 Whenever any claim for payment arises under the purchase Orders against the supplier the purchaser shall be entitled to withhold and also have a lien to retain such sum from the security deposit or sum of money arising out of under any other Purchase Orders made by the supplier with the purchaser, pending finalization or adjudication of any such claim.

20.2 It is an agreed term of the Purchase Orders that the sum of money so withheld or retained under the lien referred to above, by the purchaser, will be kept withheld or retained till the claim arising about of or under the Purchase Orders is determined by the Arbitrator or by the competent court as the case may be and the supplier will have no claim for interest or damages whatsoever on any account in respect of such withholding or retention.

21. Fall Clause

Fall clause is a price safety mechanism. The fall clause provides that if the approved vendor reduces its price or sells or even offers to sell the contracted goods of identical specification and terms & conditions to that of the Purchase Orders, at a price lower than the Purchase Orders price, to any person or organization against this Ltd. tender, the approved price will be automatically reduced with effect from that date for all the subsequent supplies under the Purchase Orders and the Purchase Orders amended accordingly.
